

CIS qualification

The South African Law School has been accredited by ICSA (Institute of Chartered Secretaries & Administrators Southern Africa) to provide training for the CIS programme &ndash; commencing in 2009.

The CIS qualification is an internationally recognised qualification which leads to highly rewarding management careers as a Company Secretary, Accounting Officer, or Corporate Administrator.

For more information on the CIS course please click the following link:

CIS Programme 1 course.

You will need a PDF viewer, like the free Adobe Acrobat viewer, to open and view this file.